

NEW PLANTINGS AND BLOCK REGISTRATIONS FOR FUTURE CERTIFIED PLANT MATERIAL

A total of 406 new blocks applications were made with PlantSA during 2020. These applications included information relating to the cultivars and clones involved, number of plants planted, nursery of origin, origin of the rootstocks and scions, the GPS coordinates and location maps of each block and inspection forms for each block.

Graph 1. Number of new block applications lodged with PlantSA during December 2020.

Graph 2. Number of plants established during 2020

SAPO registered and upgraded a large number of clones with PlantSA during 2020 (Graph 3). This will result in many blocks being upgraded to a higher certification status, with the consequence of all material collected from these blocks, having a higher status.

Graph 3. Number of clones registered and upgraded during 2020

